Product Description

TV provides viewers with a gateway to a multitude of entertainment. With this TV you can enjoy movies, music, social networking, news, games and even more diverse content that the whole family will love. 3D television offers the ultimate viewing experience by taking the normal flat, boring picture and turning it into explosive, eye-popping imagery that you'll want to reach out and touch. What's more, you can view all your camera's digital photographs and videos by simply plugging a USB device into your Samsung HDTV. It even works for your music collection, so anytime is showtime. Built-in HD Freeview gives you access to BBC HD, ITV, Channel 4 HD, radio stations and up to 50 SD channels - all on your 46" Samsung TV. Mega Dynamic Contrast Ratio is also included for exceptionally clear images with reduced optical glare and light reflection. Slim, sleek and packed with the latest technology, the 6500 Series LED is more than a television. It's a multi-media centre.
